ADMINISTRATIVE

KEY ROLES

Executive Vice President and Provost, University of Richmond 2017-present
 *Serve as chief academic officer of the University overseeing the Deans of five schools, curriculum and academic excellence, instructional and research programs, and faculty development across the University. Work closely with the President, cabinet, faculty and faculty Senate to ensure appropriate consultation on key institutional issues. Coordinate the divisions of student development, enrollment management, planning and policy, and the departments of community initiatives, faculty development, international education, research, compliance, and integrity, student academic initiatives, the library, and the university registrar.

Vice Provost (responsible for Outreach), UVA 2016-2017
 * Charged with development of strategy and coordination of school and unit outreach efforts. Supervision of the Weldon Center for Public Service, the Center for Liberal Arts, and the College Guides Program.

Vice Provost for Global Affairs, UVA 2012-2017
 * Developed and implemented strategic plan for global activities based on pan-University consultative bodies. Extensive engagement with University leadership, external partners, alumni clubs around the world, and the Board of Visitors (trustees). Member of President's cabinet. Significant initiatives include a cross-school undergraduate Global Studies program (250 majors); a research center with large seed grants for distinctive global research programs; a global internship program; an office in China; a MOOC on "Jefferson and his World"; founding member of Presidential Precinct; creation of Diplomacy Lab (first-in-nation partnership with the State Department); development of global center in historic building in Jefferson's Academical Village; establishment and supervision of UVA Global LLC for international operations. Crisis management involving programs and personnel abroad. Oversight of the International Studies Office, Center for Global Inquiry and Innovation, Center for Global Health, Global Internship Program, Morven Farms, Semester at Sea academic sponsorship, and UVA China Office. Chaired searches for Vice Provost for Academic Affairs and Director, Miller Center of Public Affairs. UVA received the 2015 Senator Paul Simon Award for Campus Internationalization from the Association of International Educators. In 2015 UVA made the IIE Open Doors "top 25" list of campuses with the most students studying abroad. Awarded 2016 W.W. Yen Award by UVA China Fund for improving the welfare of UVA's Chinese community and strengthening UVA's presence in China.

Chair, Department of Politics, UVA 2007-2010

* Oversight of 38 faculty, 800 undergraduate students, 120 graduate students, and seven staff. Led promotion and tenure, hiring, department planning, external review, curriculum change, and new departmental fundraising and communication efforts. Made key hires, including the current department chair and others to build new expertise in quantitative analysis. Successfully retained minority faculty despite strong outside offers. Undertook reviews and implemented measures to address departmental gender bias complaints and faculty research productivity challenges. Moved the department from one building to another over a holiday break with no bloodletting.

Chair, American Political Science Association (APSA) Presidential Task Force 2008-2009

* Working with the President of APSA, selected and organized a bipartisan group of eighteen renowned scholars for a fifteen-month study on US Standing in World Politics. Produced report with rollout presentations at National Press Club, U.S. Department of State, and APSA Annual Meeting, September 2009.

Co-founder and Co-chair, Governing America in a Global Era Program (GAGE) 2006-2011

* Based at UVA's Miller Center of Public Affairs, GAGE examined how ideas, interests, institutions, and politics shape U.S. policies at home and abroad. Distinctive emphasis on the interplay and tradeoffs between domestic and foreign policy, placing contemporary issues in a historical perspective, and supporting students and scholars in bringing academic expertise to bear on pressing national problems.

Interim Chair, Department of Politics 2000-2001

* Oversight of department with 35 faculty, 750 undergraduate students, 150 graduate students, and six staff; represented the department on college and university level committees. Hired department's most prominent senior scholar and a highly recruited junior hire from Stanford. Initiated departmental retreat to address future challenges. Managed several complex promotion cases; initiated major department governance changes; rearranged financial accounts to improve investment performance.

BOARD EXPERIENCE

* Board of Directors, Presidential Precinct 2013-present

A consortium between two of America's premier universities, The College of William and Mary and the University of Virginia, William Short's Morven Estate, and the homes of three presidents, Thomas Jefferson's Monticello, James Madison's Montpelier and James Monroe's Ash-Lawn Highland. The Precinct is a physical and virtual convening site for leaders from around the world interested in the development of civil society.

- * Academic Board, Academic Exchange 2008-present
 Advises Academic Exchange (AE) in organizing educational missions to Israel and the West Bank to provide scholars better understanding of the region and the chance to meet with prominent Israeli and Palestinian spokesmen, scholars, political and military leaders.
- * Board of Trustees, Institute for Shipboard Education 2012-2014
 Oversight for Semester at Sea shipboard global education program. University of Virginia was academic sponsor for the period 2006-2016.
- * Editorial Board, Washington Quarterly 2006-2011
- * Academic Leadership Council, Business for Diplomatic Action 2008-2010
