ENDOWED POSITION SUMMARIES

Jabez A. Bostwick Chair of English - In 1887 Jabez Abel Bostwick, a financier, became interested in the college and donated a Louisiana State bond as well as 250 shares of Standard Oil Trust. The Jabez A. Bostwick Chair of English was established to carry out his wish that the gift be used for payment of professors' services.

Tyler and Alice Haynes Professorship in American Studies – In 1994, the Board of Trustees appropriated one of Dr. and Mrs. Haynes' bequests to fund a professorship in American studies in their memory. The chair is intended to be filled by a senior teacher/scholar of national stature in any of the relevant fields of American studies.

Joseph A. Jennings Chair in Business - In 1983 a grant from United Virginia Bankshares (now Suntrust Bank) was made to the University to establish the Joseph A. Jennings Chair in Business in recognition of Mr. Jennings' years of service to the University.

Robert Edward and Lena Frazer Loving Chair in Physics – Established in 1961, the Robert Edward and Lena Frazer Loving Chair of Physics, was made possible by a bequest from Dr. Loving, was established at the University.

W. David Robbins Chair in Strategic Management – In 1986, Robert S. Jepson, Jr., a proud and generous 1964 alumnus of the Robins School of Business, and his wife, Alice, presented a gift to establish a chair to honor the man he called “my favorite professor.”

E. Claiborne Robins Chair in Liberal Arts – In 1985, then-President E. Bruce Heilman and the Board of Trustees announced the creation of the E. Claiborne Robins Distinguished University Chair, the largest endowed chair in University of Richmond history. The chair was designed to attract to the University nationally and internationally distinguished professors, scholars, lecturers, administrators, business leaders, lawyers, scientists, or those accomplished in the arts, humanities, theology or public service.

Roger Francis & Mary Saunders Richardson Chair in Mathematics - Established in 1991 to honor the parents of Mary Saunders Richardson with a fully endowed chair in the mathematics and computer science department of the University of Richmond.

MacEldin Trawick Professor of Psychology – The MacEldin Professorship was established in 2002 with gifts from University of Richmond alumni MacEldin Trawick.

David Meade White Jr. Chair in Business – Established in 1993 with gifts from colleagues, friends and family including David Meade White and his wife, Nancy Grandis White, the chair is intended to reward distinguished educators in the Robins School of Business who have dedicated their careers to the highest quality teaching.

Williams Chair in Law – Established in 2000 by Mr. Russell C. Williams, the chair is to be occupied by an outstanding teacher/scholar who teaches basic courses such as torts, contracts, civil procedure, constitutional law, and criminal law.
