ENDOWED POSITION SUMMARIES

The F. Carlyle Tiller Chair in Business
In 1983, Wheat First Securities made a grant to establish this endowed position to honor alumnus F. Carlyle Tiller who served the University as a lecturer in the Robins School of Business and as a member of the Board of Trustees and Rector.

The Clarence E. Denoon Jr. Professorship of Science
Established in 1993 by Clarence E. Denoon Jr., alumnus and former Board of Trustees member, this professorship recognizes scientists who also are excellent, inspiring teachers.

The CSX Chair in Management and Accounting
This chair was established in 1983 by The CSX Corporation, which has long recognized the role of a strong educational system in the growth and quality of life in our country.

The Stephanie Bennett-Smith Chair in Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies
Established in 2011 in honor of Dr. Stephanie Bennett-Smith, who served as the dean of Westhampton College from 1976 to 1984 and was nationally recognized in the field of gender and diversity issues.

The William Judson Gaines Chair in Modern Foreign Languages
Named for Dr. Gaines who taught French at the University of Richmond from 1930 until his retirement in 1970, this endowed position was established by Mrs. Elizabeth Pendleton Gaines in her husband's memory.

The David Meade White Distinguished Teaching Fellow
The David Meade White Distinguished Teaching Fellow was established in 1993 with gifts from colleagues, friends, and family including David Meade White and his wife, Nancy Grandis White. It is intended to reward distinguished educators in the Robins School of Business who have dedicated their careers to the highest quality teaching.

The Floyd D. and Elisabeth S. Gottwald Chair in Chemistry
In 1993 the Gottwalds augmented their family's support of the sciences at Richmond, which included a 1978 gift from the Ethyl Corporation to name the science center, by establishing a fund that has grown to support two separate chairs. Floyd D. Gottwald Sr. and his son, Floyd D. Gottwald Jr., a University alumnus, both served on the Board of Trustees.

The Patricia A. and George W. Welde Jr. Distinguished Chair in Finance
This chair was established in 2001 by the Weldees to attract nationally recognized faculty in the field of finance to the Business School. Mr. Welde, a Richmond graduate and retired Vice Chairman of Goldman, Sachs & Co., currently serves as Rector of the Board of Trustees.

The Rigsby Fellow in Economics
The Rigsby Fellow in Economics was established in 2002 by University alumnus Robert E. Rigsby to attract a distinguished scholar with a commitment to and demonstrated ability for teaching and scholarship in economics.

The Tyler Haynes Interdisciplinary Chair in Leadership Studies, Political Science and Law
In 1997, this chair was established from funds bequeathed by Tyler and Alice Haynes to honor Tyler Haynes, one of the University's most committed and generous graduates and trustees.
